SEPTARIAN // DRAGONSTONE

A strong healing stone often used by Shamans for journeywork and grounding sacred spaces it is packed full of ancient and universal wisdom, just ready to be tapped into. Sometimes referred to as the Cloak of Invisibility, to hide you from view and dissipate others interest in you should you wish it.

INTRODUCTION

A Cloak of Invisibility is not about physical invisibility, but rather a powerful energetic shield that allows you to move unnoticed, slipping through the radar of unwanted attention, gossip, or draining energies. It acts as a veil, cloaking your aura and protecting your sacred space, especially when you feel the need to hide from the world and go within.

What You'll Need:

- A Septarian meditation stone (also known as Dragonstone)
- A black cloth (to represent the cloak)
- White candle (for purity and protection)
- Incense (frankincense, sandalwood, or sage)
- A small bowl of salt (for grounding and protection)
- Essential oil (vetiver or cedarwood for grounding)
- Quiet, undisturbed space
- A personal item or talisman (optional, to link to your cloak's energy)

Step-by-Step Ritual

1. Prepare Your Space

- Find a quiet, undisturbed place where you can sit comfortably. Light your white candle to symbolize purity and protection. Allow the glow to begin creating a sacred, calm space around you.
- Light the incense to cleanse the energy of your space, calling in the protective and grounding spirits. Waft the smoke around the area and over yourself.
- Lay the black cloth in front of you, symbolizing the cloak you are about to create.

2. Cleanse and Activate Your Septarian

- Hold your Septarian stone in your hands and take a few deep breaths. Feel its weight and energy. This stone is millions of years old, formed by ancient elements and holding the wisdom of the Earth.
- Gently rub a few drops of vetiver or cedarwood essential oil onto the stone to ground and awaken its energy.

As you do this, say aloud or silently:

"I call upon the ancient forces of the Earth, the wisdom of Septarian, to guide me in creating my Cloak of Invisibility. Let this stone become a portal of protection, guarding my energy from harm and keeping me hidden from unwanted eyes."

3. Ground Your Energy

- Sprinkle a small circle of salt around you to protect and ground your sacred space. Visualize roots growing from your body into the Earth, connecting deeply with its ancient energy. Let yourself feel calm, centered, and safe.

4. Invoke the Cloak

- Place the Septarian stone in the center of the black cloth. Close your eyes and envision a shimmering black cloak slowly forming around your body. This cloak begins at your shoulders, draping down to cover your entire form.
- See the cloak becoming part of your energy field, blending into your aura until you are fully wrapped in it.

As you sit in this visualization, repeat:

"I am unseen, protected, and hidden. My cloak of invisibility surrounds me, shielding me from harm and unwanted attention. I am safe, I am shielded, I am free."

- Let yourself sit in this energy for a few moments, feeling the protection and calm wash over you. ✨

5. Seal the Energy

- Pick up the Septarian stone and hold it to your heart. Imagine its grounding energy anchoring the cloak around you, like a shield that only you can remove.

Say aloud:

"By the power of Earth and stone, this cloak shall remain, a shield of protection and invisibility. It will guard my spirit and energy, seen only by those I allow. So it is spoken, so it is done."

6. Store Your Cloak

- Once you feel ready, gently fold the black cloth around your Septarian stone, symbolizing that your cloak is stored within it. This will be your tangible reminder of the Cloak of Invisibility. You can take the Septarian with you for extra protection when needed or keep it near you during times when you need to stay energetically hidden.

7. Optional: Empower a Talisman

- If you have a personal item or talisman, place it on top of the wrapped stone and visualize it absorbing the energy of the cloak. This can be something small like a necklace or ring that you can wear to reinforce your shield when you need it.

8. Close the Ritual

- Gently extinguish your candle, saying:

"I release this circle of protection, but the power of the cloak remains with me. I am unseen, I am safe, I am protected."

- Allow the incense to burn out naturally, as it continues to cleanse and protect the space.

Using Your Cloak of Invisibility

Any time you need to "disappear" energetically, whether you're in a crowded place, feeling overwhelmed, or simply wish to protect your aura, hold your Septarian stone or visualize the cloak wrapping around you. Breathe deeply, and feel yourself shielded from unwanted attention.

This cloak can also be activated before social situations where you wish to stay low-key or avoid energy vampires.

As you work with this cloak over time, its energy will strengthen, becoming an invaluable tool for your spiritual journey. Your Septarian stone will continue to be a potent ally, holding the wisdom of the Earth and shielding you in times of need.
